

EXAMINER INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Applicant thanks the Examiner for the courtesies extended to the undersigned during an interview on December 6, 2007. During the interview the proposed Amendment was discussed and the undersigned explained that even if the curved side of Bruner is considered a bend, the curve is formed before cold forming. In contrast, the present claims recite bending during cold forming.